Bringing your message to life.

Century College Continuing Education/Customized Training Department can help your organization find the most effective way to “show and tell” your message to employees and clients.

- Corporate Image Promotion
- Skills Training
- Standardized Employee Orientation
- Educational Programs
- Safety Training
- Business and Product Information
- Documentation
- Special Events and More

The experienced staff at Century’s Media Production Services (MPS) will begin by listening to your needs, then develop a story line and customize your message in a format that’s right for you – one that’s high-impact, flexible and affordable.

Your message can be produced in the following formats:
Interactive CD-ROM, DVD, Videocassette – even streaming video on the Web.
