

“Launching a Successful Job Search in Challenging Times”

Amy Lindgren

Nationally Syndicated
Employment Columnist
Job Search Strategist

Thursday, Nov. 17, 2011

10:30 - 12 pm

West campus Theatre

60 minute presentation and 30 minute Q & A

This may be a tough time to seek employment, but it's not impossible. People are getting jobs. If you want to join their ranks, you'll have to be more strategic and persistent than usual. In this fast-paced, interactive discussion, you'll learn 4 key steps for winning at the job search game:

1. Starting with a results-oriented job search strategy
2. Marketing yourself as a can't-miss candidate via branding
3. Staying motivated through goal-setting and positive networking
4. Crafting a Plan B strategy to see you through the tough times

GPS LifePlan

Sponsored by Career Services
Northeast Metro Perkins Initiative

For more information contact:
carrie.hageman@century.edu

CENTURY
COLLEGE

Visit us at:

century.edu (Keyword Search "Career")