

FREE evening with

Thursday, November 19
7:00–9:00 pm at Century College
West Campus Theater

In a darkened theater, aspiring performers from diverse backgrounds curiously respond to a casting call for an off-beat production involving homelessness. When this small group of total strangers arrive, they embark on a journey that takes them places they never dreamed existed. From mad scientists attempting to develop a cure for homelessness to an over-zealous game show host, it's a passionate and invasive exploration of the stories that aren't being heard about homelessness.

Whimsical, wise, and wonderful, Housed and Homeless (From the Very Same Cup) tells the real stories of homeless men and women in the Twin Cities. Both compassionate and didactic, the show promises to awaken a sense of urgency about the issue of homelessness.

6:30–7 pm Registration & Information

7–8 pm Performance

8–8:30 pm Panel Discussion

Panelists:

- Trisha Cummins Kauffman, Executive Director, East Metro Women's Council
- Tina O'Malley Bayonet, Washington County Housing Coordinator
- Faye Sharpe, Former EMWC resident, Century College student and EMWC Board Member
- Deborah Mitchell, Supervisor, Wilder ROOF project

8:30–9 pm Reception & Refreshments

This activity is funded, in part, by funds provided by the Metropolitan Regional Arts Council through an appropriation by the Minnesota Legislature.

Visit us at:
www.century.edu

Presented by COLLAGE,
an East Metro Collaborative Raising
Social Awareness and Inspiring Action.

Century College is a member of the Minnesota State Colleges and University system. We are an affirmative action, equal opportunity employer and educator. This document can be available in alternative formats to individuals with disabilities by calling 651.779.3354 or 1.800.228.1978 x 3354 or Minnesota Relay Service at 1.800.627.3529.