Part 1. Procedure objective
This procedure is designed to further implement Century College Policy 1B.3.1.1 prohibiting sexual violence. This procedure provides a process through which individuals alleging sexual violence may pursue a complaint.

This procedure is intended to protect the rights and privacy of both the complainant and respondent and other involved individuals, as well as to prevent retaliation and reprisal.

Part 2. Definitions
Subpart A. Policy definitions. The definitions in Policy 1B.3.1.1 also apply to this procedure.

Part 3. Reporting incidents of sexual violence
Subpart A. Prompt reporting is encouraged. Complainants of sexual violence may report incidents at any time, but are strongly encouraged to make reports promptly in order to best preserve evidence for a potential legal or disciplinary proceeding.

Complainants are strongly encouraged to report incidents of sexual violence to law enforcement at the location where the incident occurred. Complainants are also encouraged to contact the local victim/survivor services office, counseling and health care providers, and Century College campus security authorities for appropriate action.

Subpart B. Assistance in reporting. When informed of an alleged incident of sexual violence, all Century College students and employees are urged to encourage and assist complainants, as needed, to report the incident to local law enforcement, local victim/survivor services and campus security authorities.
Century College campus security authorities, when informed of an alleged incident of sexual violence, shall promptly assist the complainant, including providing guidance in filing complaints with outside agencies including law enforcement; obtaining appropriate assistance from victim/survivor services or medical treatment professionals; and filing a complaint with campus officials responsible for enforcing the student conduct code or employee conduct standards.

When appropriate, Century College may pursue legal action against a respondent, including, but not limited to, trespass or restraining orders, in addition to disciplinary action under the applicable student or employee conduct standard. Century College may take action it deems necessary or appropriate in response to all protection, retraining or no contact orders.

Part 4. Confidentiality of reporting

Subpart A. Confidential reports. Because of laws concerning government data contained in Minnesota Statutes chapter 13, the Minnesota Government Data Practices Act, Century College cannot guarantee confidentiality to those who report incidents of sexual violence except where those reports are privileged communications with licensed health care professionals. Some off-campus reports also may be legally privileged by law, such as reports to clergy, private legal counsel, or health care professionals.

Subpart B. Reports to campus security authorities. Complainants of sexual violence may contact any campus security authority for appropriate assistance or to report incidents. Absolute confidentiality of reports made to campus security authorities cannot be promised. However, campus security authorities shall not disclose personally identifiable information about a complainant of sexual violence without the complainant’s consent except as may be required or permitted by law. There may be instances in which Century College determines it needs to act regardless of whether the parties have reached a personal resolution or if the complainant requests that no action be taken. In such instances, Century College will investigate and take appropriate action, taking care to protect the identity of the complainant and any other reporter in accordance with this procedure.

Subpart C. Required Reports. Any campus security authority or any college employee with supervisory or student-advising responsibility who has been informed of an alleged incident of sexual violence must follow college procedures for making a report for the annual crime statistics report. In addition, the Century College authority shall report to other school officials, as appropriate, such as the, the campus office responsible for administering the student conduct code, and/or the designated Title IX compliance coordinator, in order to initiate any applicable investigative or other resolution procedures.

   a. Where and how to obtain immediate medical assistance; complainants should be informed that timely reporting and a medical examination within 72 hours are critical in preserving evidence of sexual assault and proving a criminal or civil case against a perpetrator. Complainants should be told, however, that they may report incidents of sexual violence at any time.
   b. Where and how to report incidents of sexual violence to local law enforcement officials, and/or appropriate Century College contacts for employees, students and others. Such contacts should be identified by name, location and phone number for 24-hour availability, as applicable.
   c. Resources for where and how complainants may obtain on- or off-campus counseling, mental health or other support services.

Part 6. Investigation and disciplinary procedures

Subpart A. Immediate action. Century College may, at any time during the report/complaint process, reassign or place on administrative leave an employee alleged to have violated this policy, in accordance with the procedures in Minnesota State Colleges and Universities Board Policy Procedure 1B.1.1. Such action must be consistent with the applicable collective bargaining agreement or personnel plan.

Century College may summarily suspend or take other temporary measures against a student alleged to have committed a violation of this policy, in accordance with Minnesota State Colleges and Universities Board Policy Procedure 1B.1.1 or Minnesota State Colleges and Universities Board Policy 3.6.

Subpart B. General Principles. Century College shall use system procedure 1B1.1 Report/ Complaint of Discrimination/Harassment Investigation and Resolution when investigating complaints of sexual violence. Procedures used in response to a complaint of sexual violence should avoid requiring complainants to follow any plan of action, to prevent the possibility of re-victimization. Mediation or other negotiated dispute resolution processes between the complainant and the respondent concerning allegations of sexual violence shall be used only if both parties voluntarily consent. No party shall be required to participate in mediation.

Century College investigation and disciplinary procedures concerning allegations of sexual violence against employees or students shall:

1. Be respectful of the needs and rights of individuals involved;
2. Proceed as promptly as possible;
3. Permit a student complainant and a student respondent to have the same opportunity to have an appropriate support person or advisor present at any interview or hearing, in a manner consistent with the governing procedures and applicable data practices law;
4. Employees shall have the right to representation consistent with the appropriate collective bargaining agreement or personnel plan;
5. Be conducted in accordance with applicable due process standards and privacy laws;
6. Inform both the complainant and respondent of the outcome in a timely manner, as permitted by applicable privacy law.
7. Be based on a preponderance of evidence standard, meaning that it is more likely than not that the policy or code has been violated.

The past sexual history of the complainant and respondent shall be deemed irrelevant except as that history may directly relate to the incident being considered.

A respondent’s use of any drug, including alcohol, judged to be related to an offense may be considered to be an exacerbating rather than mitigating circumstance.

Subpart C. Relationship to parallel proceedings. In general, Century College investigation and disciplinary procedures for allegations of sexual violence will proceed independent of any action taken in criminal or civil courts. The college need not, and in most cases should not, delay its proceedings while a parallel legal action is on-going. If Century College is aware of a criminal proceeding involving the alleged incident, they may contact the prosecuting authority to coordinate when feasible. Criminal or civil court proceedings are not a substitute for Century College procedures.

Subpart D. False statements prohibited. Century College takes allegations of sexual violence very seriously and recognizes the consequences such allegations may have on a respondent as well as the complainant. Any individual who knowingly provides false information regarding the filing of a complaint or report of sexual violence or during the investigation of such a complaint or report may be subject to discipline or under certain circumstances, legal action. Complaints of conduct that are found not to violate policy are not assumed to be false.

Subpart E. Withdrawn complaint. If a complainant no longer desires to pursue a complaint through this policy’s proceeding, Century College reserves the right to investigate and resolve the complaint as it deems appropriate.
Subpart F. Century College discretion to pursue certain allegations. Century College reserves discretion whether to pursue alleged violations of policy under appropriate circumstances, including, but not limited to, a determination that an effective investigation is not feasible because of the passage of time, or because the respondent is no longer a student or employee of the college or university.

Subpart G. Century College discretion to deal with policy violations disclosed in investigation. Century College reserves the right to determine whether to pursue violations of policy by students or employees other than the respondent, including a complainant or witness, that come to light during the investigation of an incident of sexual violence. In order to encourage reporting of sexual violence, under appropriate circumstances college administrators may choose to deal with violations of Century College policy in a manner other than disciplinary action.

Subpart H. Sanctions. Sanctions that may be imposed if a finding is made that sexual violence has occurred include, but are not limited to, suspension, expulsion of students or termination from employment. The appropriate sanction will be determined on a case-by-case basis taking into account the severity of the conduct, the student’s or employee’s previous disciplinary history, and other factors as appropriate.

Subpart I. Retaliation prohibited. Actions by a student or employee intended as retaliation, reprisal or intimidation against an individual for making a complaint or participating in any way in a report or investigation under this policy are prohibited and are subject to appropriate disciplinary action.

Part 7. Sexual violence prevention and education.
Subpart A. Campus-wide training.
1. Century College will continue to offer and develop educational programs, brochures, posters and other means of information to decrease the incidence of sexual violence and advise individuals of the legal and other options available if they are the complainants of an incident or they learn of such an incident.
2. Provide training to all new incoming students and new employees on awareness of sexual violence prevention measure and procedure for responding to incident of sexual violence.

Subpart B. Training for individuals charged with decision making authority. Prior to serving as either an investigator or decision maker for complaints under this procedure, employee must complete investigator or decision maker training provided by the system office.

Such information will be used to report campus crime statistics on college and university campuses as required by that Act.

During and upon the completion of the complaint process, the complaint file shall be maintained in a secure location. Access to complaint file information shall be in accordance with the applicable collective bargaining agreement or personnel plan, the Minnesota Government Data Practices Act, the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act and other applicable law and policy.
