

Minnesota State Colleges and Universities

Visiting Student Requirements

- Minnesota State visiting student status is not available to individuals currently on suspension or having a financial hold at another post-secondary institution.
- Minnesota State visiting students may be able to use financial aid from their home institution. (Financial aid is not available through Century College.)
- The maximum number of enrolled credits at all Minnesota State Colleges and Universities cannot exceed 22 in any semester.
- The maximum number of enrolled credits as a visiting student at Century College is 18 credits in any semester.
- Minnesota State visiting students must meet any required course prerequisites or placement levels.
- Minnesota State visiting students are not required to complete an orientation.
- Minnesota State visiting students are responsible for verifying how their Century College course(s) will transfer to current (home) or future colleges or universities.
- Students are responsible for paying their Century College tuition bill. (This can be done through the student's eServices)