International students are eligible to work on-campus as student workers. However, not all student worker positions are open to international students. Follow the steps below to determine which jobs are open to international students and learn how to apply!

A. Create an account and search for on-campus jobs using CollegeCentral (See below for detailed steps.)
B. When you find a job that you are interested in, contact the supervisor to ask if they are able to hire international students. (See below for a sample email.)
C. If the supervisor says yes, complete the application process as it is listed in the job posting on CollegeCentral.
D. Century College Career Services is available if you need help with the application, your resume, or cover letter. Many resources can be found at www.century.edu/careerservices or schedule an appointment with a Career Services Advisor (contact information on the Career Services website).

STEP A

#1 Create an Account and Sign In at: https://www.collegecentral.com/century/

#2 Click on “Search- My School’s Jobs”

#3 Select Student Employment and click on “View Jobs by Job Type”
#4 Review the list of jobs. Click on any you are interested in!

#5 Contact the person listed under Application Instructions to ask if they are able to hire international students.

STEP B

Here's an example of an email you can write to the supervisor:

Dear Ms. Xiong,
My name is Emily Salava. I saw your job posting for the Advising Center Office Assistant position. I am very interested in applying. I would like to know if you are able to hire international students who are not eligible for work-study funding.
Thank you for your time.
Sincerely,
Emily Salava
