

Housing Information

Advising, Counseling and Career Center Front Desk: 651.779.3285

Century College does not own or operate housing facilities for students. You may find information on housing options near the college posted throughout campus on Community Bulletin boards and the Housing and Transportation Bulletin Board located just outside of the Resource and Support Center (W1490) on west campus. The college does not inspect or certify such housing, nor will it assume responsibility for problems arising from private housing.

Emergency and Transitional Housing:

- Tubman: <https://www.tubman.org/get-help/shelter-housing/>
Tubman is Minnesota's largest provider of domestic violence shelter services. Clients can participate in support groups for domestic violence, sexual exploitation, and other forms of trauma, and work with our team to develop personalized safety and goal plans. Clients are connected to resources at Tubman and in the community that best support their goals, including legal and mental and medical health support.
- HousingLink: <https://www.housinglink.org/Home>
HousingLink's mission is "to improve people's lives through information expanding their affordable rental choices."
- 211 United Way: <https://www.211unitedway.org/>
Families and individuals in Minnesota can call to obtain free and confidential information for various human services. Centers are staffed 24/7 by trained Community Resource Specialists.
- Neighborhood House: <http://neighb.org/program/housing-stability/>
When a family faces a situation that puts them at risk for homelessness, Neighborhood House helps them find permanent, safe homes. Assistance may include emergency financial support, housing inspections, or mediation between tenants and landlords.
- Booth Brown House Youth Shelter and Housing Program: <https://centralusa.salvationarmy.org/northern/BoothBrownHouse/>
The Booth Brown House at 1471 Como Ave. W., St. Paul, is a safe place for youth to turn when they have nowhere else to go. The Homeless Youth Overnight Shelter provides help for 18 to 21 year-olds, while our Foyer Housing program helps vulnerable or disadvantaged youth, ages 16 to 24, transition from dependence to independence.
- Minnesota Low Income Housing: <https://www.lowincomehousing.us/MN.html>
Works with local housing authorities to develop low income/affordable housing lists in the early 2000's. We compiled lists of local HUD, public housing, low income housing, and non-profit apartments.
- Canvas Health: <https://www.canvashealth.org/specialty-programs/housing-programs/>
Access to Canvas Health's supportive housing is a successful, cost-effective combination of affordable housing with services that helps people live more stable, productive lives.
- Catholic Charities: <https://merrickcs.org/community-services/>
The mission of Catholic Charities is to serve those most in need and to advocate for justice in the community.
