Wood Ducks in the Wild
Student Application – Spring 2020

This spring, the Office of Student Life will be offering a variety of outdoor adventures in partnership with Voyager Outward Bounds School (VOBS). Each trip is designed to encourage experiential learning through hands-on experience and challenges. Students will take away learning opportunities that better connect themselves to their personal leadership development and the Great Outdoors.

Personal Information (PRINT CLEARLY):
First Name: ____________________________  Last Name: ____________________________
Email: ____________________________  Phone Number: ____________________________
Star ID: ____________________________  Currently Enrolled or Returning Student (yes or no): ____________________________

Application Questions:
Why are you interested in Wood Ducks in the Wild?
What sort of leadership skills are you hoping to work on?
What is your level of experience or comfort in the outdoors (camping, climbing, hiking, kayaking/canoeing, etc)?
Anything else we should know about?

Tentative Trips:
Please note, space is limited for some trips—please mark the trips you are interested in, and order of preference

As space is very limited, you are encouraged to provide your ranked preference for the trips. There is a small chance you can attend both. If money is an issue, please contact Chris or Layton in the Student Life office (W1210) or via email.
Need to Know

- All trips are designed to challenge and push boundaries
- We try and make each trip as accessible as possible, but not all trips are as accommodating as others
  - Contact Chris or Layton with concerns
- Each trip requires a reservation fee to ensure spots are held—since we have limited space
- While Century and VOBs has or will have access to the majority of equipment, you will still need to have some equipment of your own (hiking shoes, backpack, sleeping bag, etc)
- These trips are outdoors and can lead to unpredictable conditions (weather, emergencies, accidents, etc)—please know the risks associate with specific activities
- Before each trip we will host a planning meeting—to ensure you pack appropriate materials and know the logistics of the trip
- Submitting an application does not reserve your spot, you will be directed to complete the following to reserve your spot for each trip you plan to attend:
  - Orientation, if assigned
  - Payment, as shown above
  - Final Trip Commitment Form
